WICT gives you the tools to define your career journey.

Become a member today! Go to www.wict.org or call 703.234.9817.

Grasp New Knowledge, Escalate Your Career: Whether you're striving to be more effective in your current position or taking your career to the next level, WICT provides an array of educational programs, services and volunteer experiences to further your professional development.

Extend Your Network: When you join WICT, you surround yourself with success. Our community of nearly 8,000 established and aspiring industry leaders exchange knowledge and experiences to advance each other's progress. WICT provides a variety of opportunities to build enriching relationships including renowned leadership programs, local chapter networking events and participation on chapter boards.

WICT is in Your Corner: WICT conducts research and corporate outreach on issues that matter - so that we can serve as an advocate for you. The PAR Initiative gives you the industry standards on Pay Equity, Advancement Opportunities and Resources for Work Life Support.

Access Online Resources: WICT's electronic newsletter, The WICT Wire, provides WICT and industry news—right to your box each month. You can also take advantage of exclusive access to the members-only section of the WICT website, where you'll find special offers and social networks with rich information only available to members.

Enjoy Local Access: With 20 WICT chapters across the United States, you can form relationships right in your own backyard. You select the primary chapter of your choice. And our online Member Directory lets you tap into a community of nearly 8,000 WICT members at all professional levels across the country.

Learn How to Manage Your Career: The WICT Online Career Center puts you in front of more than 200 industry companies and helps you to be your own career manager. Search for immediate opportunities and build a confidential career profile and resume today. Companies with WICT members may post at the discounted rate.

Acquire Transitional Benefits: Renewing WICT members affected by the economic climate, industry consolidation or company restructuring, may take advantage of reduced member dues through WICT's Transitional Member Program. Contact WICT at membership@wict.org if you'd like more details.

Receive Industry Discounts: Qualify to receive discounts on subscriptions to these popular magazines: Multichannel News, PINK, and Working Mother. WICT members are offered a 25% off membership in the National Association of Female Executives (NAFE). Fellowships at the national and chapter level providing financial support are also an exclusive WICT member benefit.

Be Recognized for Your Achievements: WICT offers multiple awards throughout the year at both the national and chapter levels. These programs honor individuals and companies at various levels, including the prestigious WICT Accolade Awards, Bernice Coe Award and the Women in Technology Award.
