THE WICT SIGNATURE LUNCHEON

April 4, 2018 | 12:30pm
New York Hilton Midtown
New York Midtown

Come out and support the industry's commitment to diversity and inclusion!

The 2018 Signature Luncheon is WICT's key gender diversity and inclusion platform where industry leaders convene to recognize the achievements of the top operators and programmers for women to work, based on the 2017 PAR Workplace Diversity survey.

The luncheon will be held at the New York Hilton Midtown on April 4, in conjunction with the Cable Hall of Fame celebration later that evening, marking the first time the event will be staged in New York City.

Join us in support of WICT and the companies leading the way in fostering inclusive workplace cultures. The 2017 PAR Top Operators for Women to Work are Comcast Corporation (Platinum), Cox Communications (Gold), Midco (Silver) and Mediacom Communications Corporation (Bronze). The 2017 PAR Top Programmers for Women to Work are NBCUniversal (Platinum), Scripps Networks Interactive (Gold), Disney ABC Television Group (Silver) and Discovery Communications (Bronze).

To sponsor a table or purchase individual tickets to the Signature Luncheon, download the reservation form or contact Cindy Key at ckey@wict.org.

WICT gratefully acknowledges the sponsors of the Signature Luncheon

WICT Announces 2018 Recipient of the Nomi M. Bergman Fellowship

Crystal Daniels Davis
Global Product Manager, Corning

WICT recently announced Crystal Daniels Davis, Global Product Manager of Corning, as the 2018 recipient of the Nomi M. Bergman Fellowship.

Crystal leads cross-functional teams comprised of representatives from technology, manufacturing and supply chain to deliver growth and profitability for Corning's Drop cable chain line. Crystal joined Corning in 2008 and has a passion for building and leading strong global teams who solve tough challenges. Crystal is actively involved in Corning's Diversity Network and currently serves as an advisory board member for one of the company's employee resource groups. Crystal joined WICT in 2014 and is a member of the Carolinas Chapter.

Designed to support career development for high potential women working for technology companies, the Nomi M. Bergman Fellowship enables recipients to experience and grow through the strength of WICT's robust educational programs and strong professional network. The fellowship is a one-year award that includes WICT membership and a fully funded scholarship to the WICT Leadership Conference and other select WICT programs, to include travel stipends. The fellowship will be underwritten by WICT's Leadership Endowment Fund, which was established in 1989 in a measure to enable WICT to give back to the industry in meaningful ways.

Named in honor of one of the cable industry's most influential technology professionals, Ms. Bergman has been actively involved with WICT, CableLabs, NCTA, and SCTE on technology issues. She has been recognized by WICT as Woman of the Year in 2011 and by WICT, SCTE and Cablefax with the Women in Technology Award in 2004.

WICT Veterans: Apply Today for the Martha Soehren Women Veterans Fellowship

WICT is accepting applications for the newly established Martha Soehren Women Veterans Fellowship. Designed to support career development and advancement for high potential women veterans employed by a programmer, operator or technology company, the Fellowship enables recipients to experience the strength of WICT's robust educational programs and strong professional network. The Fellowship recipient will embark on a one year journey designed to build crucial leadership development skills through WICT's resources and programs.

Named in honor of one of the cable industry's most influential learning leaders, Dr. Soehren currently serves as the Immediate Past Chair of the WICT Global Board of Directors. Martha is the Chief Talent Development Officer and Senior Vice President at Comcast University and Comcast Cable. Her career encompasses 17 years in the telecommunications industry; 25 years in the defense industry; and 13 years as an adjunct professor and research/academic advisor.

WICT will provide the recipient with a one-year membership in WICT, in addition to underwriting registration costs and travel stipends for one or all of the following programs:

- Tech It Out - July 2018, Philadelphia, PA
- WICT Leadership Conference - October 15-16, 2018, New York, NY
- Executive Development Series - November 14-15, 2018, Rancho Santa Fe, CA

Apply today - applications due by March 30. The inaugural Fellowship recipient will be announced in April 2018.

Leadership Lessons from WICT's Complimentary Webinar: Reshaping Today's Workplace

The Seismic Shift Reshaping Today's Workplaces
May 16, 2018
1:00 - 2:30pm (Eastern)

Headlines are blazing with stories on harassment and the launch of the #MeToo, #SeeHer and #TimesUp initiatives. The reverberations are driving strong emotions and difficult conversations in our workplaces, at dinner tables, in classrooms, and government chambers.

In this webinar, we'll explore the biological force behind this tectonic shift and what it means for workplace interactions as well as organizational structures and policies. Our presenter, Dr. Britt Andreatta is a thought leader who studies the brain science of humans at work and brings a unique perspective to this issue. She is the author of Leading with Emotional Intelligence and Wired to Connect: The Brain Science of Teams and a New Model for Creating Collaboration and Inclusion with over 7.5million views of her online courses.

As an executive, you need to provide guidance to your organization during this critical time. This webinar will provide you with some new insights and tools for navigating the shifting landscape. Topics include:

- Brain science of harassment, silence, shame and defensiveness
- Role of unconscious bias, micro-aggressions, privilege and power
- Reframing training, policies and risk mitigation to create fair and respectful workplaces
